SAN ANGELO, Tex., Dec. 7.—
 The West Texas Geological Society, organized here in the fall of 1926, has chosen A. L. Ackers, district geologist for Stanolind Oil and Gas Company at San Angelo, as president for the ensuing year, succeeding Robert L. Cannon, independent consulting geologist of this city. Other officers are: Vice president, W. W. Patrick, The Texas Company, Midland; secretary-treasurer, Miss Minette Ries, Phillips Petroleum Company, San Angelo.

At the session at which the election was held, John F. Hosterman, district geologist for Amerada Petroleum Corporation here, reviewed the fifth annual field conference of the Kansas Geological Society held in Oklahoma and Arkansas in September.
